RECOM Power, Inc. and WPG Americas, Inc. create LED driver Distribution Partnership in the Americas

San Jose, California (June 7, 2011) WPG Americas today announced it has entered into a new distribution agreement with RECOM Power. Under the terms of the agreement, WPG Americas will distribute RECOM's DC/DC and AC/DC convertors, switching regulators, and LED drivers.

"RECOM Power's portfolio is a strong addition to WPG America's line card. RECOM fits well in the strong ecosystem we have created for Customers in the lighting sector, and we look forward to expanding the customer base for their solutions in the Americas", said Greg Provenzano, North America VP of Sales and Engineering Solutions of WPG Americas.

"We are pleased to have WPG Americas as a distribution partner for our Lightline series of LED drivers in the Americas. WPG's comprehensive supply chain and logistic capabilities, combined with their dedicated LED lighting sales force, will be invaluable assets as we expand our presence in the North and South American LED driver markets", said Christoph Wolf, Senior Executive Vice President of Recom.
